

HOW TO BLOW THE WHISTLE ON SUSPECTED IMPROPER ACTIVITIES

The University of California wants you to report improper activities, and will protect you from retaliation for whistleblowing

What You Can Report

Any activity by UC or a UC employee that violates any state or federal law or regulation (e.g., corruption, malfeasance, bribery, theft or misuse of government property, fraud, coercion, or conversion); or wastes money, or involves gross misconduct, gross incompetence, or gross inefficiency

Confidentiality will be maintained to the extent possible

Protection from Retaliation

Complaints regarding suspected retaliation for reporting improper activities may be filed with the LBNL Chief Operating Officer, the Human Resources Department, or the DOE Employee Concerns Program.

WHAT WE INVESTIGATE:

- Illegal acts like theft, fraud, or conflicts of interest by state employees.
- Misuse or abuse of state property or time by state employees.

Although we have no enforcement power, we keep the ball rolling by reporting the results of investigations that substantiate improprieties to:

- The head of the employing agency
- The attorney general or other enforcement agencies, legislative committees, and any other authority with jurisdiction
- The general public, keeping identities confidential

- It helps guard against intimidation, threats, or coercion by state employees that could interfere with your right to disclose improper government activities.
- It helps keep you safe from reprisal, retaliation, threats, or coercion for reporting such information.
